VICTOR RIVERS

Actor, Activist and Author

"When I tell people I speak out against Domestic Violence, they ask 'isn't that strictly a woman's issue?' Domestic Violence is EVERYONE'S issue.

Born in Sancti Spiritus, Cuba, he came to this country at the age of two, enduring horrific child abuse and witnessing domestic violence on the level of torture at the hands of his father. At age fifteen, Victor took the then unprecedented legal action against his father, going on to live with a series of foster families.

Thanks to the intervention of his community, he turned his life around dramatically—going from hard-core gang-member to senior class President and lettering in four sports. He attended Florida State University on a full four-year football scholarship.

In 1999 Victor became the national spokesperson for the National Network to End Domestic Violence. Victor Rivas Rivers is also a devoted husband and father—what he believes are his two most important roles.

As an ACTOR Victor Rivers is the veteran star of more than two dozen films, best known for such roles as: Magic Mike in Blood In/Blood Out; Eddie Murphy's sidekick in The Distinguished Gentleman; Antonio Banderas' ill-fated brother in The Mask of Zorro.

Victor Rivers guest starred on television hit shows such as: Miami Vice; JAG; Star Trek; C.S.I. Miami; 24.
